Understanding Your Medical Bills
Rubin Institute for Advanced Orthopedics
Sinai Hospital of Baltimore
At the Rubin Institute for Advanced Orthopedics, we are committed to providing you with state-of-the-art treatment while making the process as straightforward as possible.

We created this brochure to help you understand your health insurance claims, co-payments, and medical bills. We hope that once you have this information, you can focus entirely on your health care needs.

Before Your Visit

Do you accept my insurance?

Please contact your insurance company before your clinic visit or hospitalization. Find out whether our doctors are considered to be in-network. If you are not from Maryland, ask if you have out-of-state benefits. Also find out whether you will be responsible for any part of the payment (e.g., co-payments, deductibles, co-insurance). Your insurance company’s phone number is listed on your insurance card.

Keep in mind that although the Rubin Institute may be an in-network facility for your insurance plan, your insurance company might not consider all services at Sinai Hospital to be in-network. For example, you may need to go to your insurance company’s preferred provider for laboratory, x-ray, or other services. If your insurance company does not cover x-ray services at the Rubin Institute, ask your doctor for a prescription to obtain the necessary x-rays so that you can bring these x-rays with you to your appointment.
The Day of Your Visit

Which payments are due at the time of my clinic visit?

We collect all amounts owed before we provide service. Co-payments and/or co-insurance amounts are due at the time of your visit. Please note that the amount we collect at the time of your visit may be based on estimated charges. If your admission or procedure takes longer than expected or you require additional health care services, the total charges may be more than the original estimated amount. After your insurance pays their portion, you will be responsible for any balance due.

Why do I owe two co-payments at the time of my visit?

You may be required to pay two separate co-payments (one for the physician and one for the hospital) when you are seen on the second or fifth floor of the Schoeneman Building at Sinai Hospital. Your insurance company determines whether you pay one or two co-payments and how much you pay when you are seen at this location. If you see your doctor for a clinic visit at an off-site location that is not on the Sinai Hospital campus, you will be charged only one co-payment.
